*Music that Moves Us
... Near and Far*

Single tickets go on sale July 20 for the Bozeman Symphony's 2026-27 season, Music that Moves Us ... Near and Far, the orchestra's 59th season and its most expansive and ambitious to date.

The season opens September 12 & 13 with Revolution & Revelry: Shostakovich 5, launching a musical journey that explores destinations both real and imagined through works inspired by culture, history, landscapes, and traditions from around the world. From beloved masterworks to compelling contemporary compositions, each performance offers audiences a unique musical experience.

"This is one of our most exciting seasons yet, filled with music that inspires, surprises, and connects us," said Music Director Norman Huynh. "Whether audiences are experiencing the power of Verdi's Requiem, the artistry of world-renowned guest musicians, or the joy of our beloved Holiday Spectacular, every concert invites listeners on a memorable musical journey."

A highlight of the season is the debut of the Spotlight Series, featuring three intimate chamber music performances by Bozeman Symphony musicians. Presented in an up-close, personal setting, these concerts offer audiences a unique opportunity to experience the artistry and versatility of Symphony performers in beloved chamber works.

The season also features an exceptional lineup of internationally acclaimed guest artists, including bassist Edgar Meyer, cellist Julian Schwarz, pipa virtuoso Gao Hong, pianist Ying Li, and renowned operatic soloists. Audiences will also enjoy performances by two of the

Hoot-owl restrictions take effect Saturday on some rivers in southwest and north-central Montana

Hoot-owl restrictions take effect Saturday, July 11 at 2 p.m. on the following rivers:

North-central Montana:

- Sun River – from the Highway 287 bridge to the mouth of Muddy Creek

Southwest Montana:

- Lower Madison River – From Warm Springs Fishing Access Site to the confluence with the Jefferson River
- Madison River above Hebgen Reservoir – From the upstream most Yellowstone National Park boundary to Hebgen Reservoir
- Lower Beaverhead River – From Highway 41 near East Bench Road and Beaverhead Rock to its confluence with the Big Hole River

Hoot-owl restrictions prohibit fishing from 2 p.m. to midnight each day. These restrictions will stay in effect until conditions improve.

FWP's drought policy provides for angling restrictions when flows drop below critical levels for fish, when water quality is diminished or when maximum daily water temperatures reach at least 73 degrees for three consecutive days. Water temperatures of 77 degrees or more can be lethal to trout.

These restrictions are designed to protect fish that become more susceptible to disease and mortality when water temperatures warm. Restricting angling to only cool morning hours can help reduce catch-and-release mortality.

Catch-and-release anglers can reduce stress on fish by getting them to the net or in hand quickly, keeping them in the water and reviving them prior to releasing them back into the river.

As the summer warms, Montana offers many other angling options with better conditions for fish, including larger lakes or reservoirs, or higher elevation lakes and streams.

Along with monitoring stream temperatures, FWP also monitors stream flows and, in some streams, holds instream flow water rights. FWP's water program can issue a call on junior water users, when appropriate, to contribute to stream flows through the late summer and early fall.

MAJOR ENDORSEMENT: Veterans for All Voters Montana Endorses I-194; Campaign Launches Veterans for I-194 Coalition

The Montana Plan PAC announced today that Veterans for All Voters Montana has endorsed I-194, and that the campaign is launching a new Veterans for I-194 Coalition to bring Montana veterans into the fight to end corporate and dark-money political spending in Montana elections.

I-194, the November 2026 ballot measure known as The Montana Plan, would stop corporations, LLCs, unions, nonprofits, and other artificial entities from using treasury funds to support or oppose candidates or ballot measures, while preserving the right of real people to donate, speak, volunteer, and participate in politics.

Veterans for All Voters Montana is a veteran-led, cross-partisan organization working to elevate veteran voices in our constitutional republic, strengthen trust in democratic institutions, and advance reforms that give voters a greater voice in their government. With its endorsement, Veterans for All Voters Montana (VAV-Montana) joins a growing bipartisan coalition of reform leaders, good-government advocates, and Montanans supporting The Montana Plan I-194.

"As a retired Army lieutenant colonel, I learned that trust is the foundation of every successful team, institution, and mission," said David Oclander of Veterans for All Voters Montana in an op-ed supporting The Montana Plan. "Without trust, organizations become fragile. Communities become divided. People stop believing they belong to the same story. Our Constitutional Republic is no different. That is why Veterans for All Voters Montana supports The Montana Plan."

In addition to the endorsement, The Montana Plan is launching Veterans for I-194, a coalition of Montana veterans committed to listening, learning, and leading conversations about how corporate political spending and dark-money networks affect the issues veterans and military families care about. The Montana Plan will work closely with Veterans for All Voters Montana and veterans across the state to ensure Veterans for I-194 is representative of Montana's veteran community and responsive to the concerns veterans are raising in their communities.

"Montana veterans know what it means to serve something larger than themselves," said Jeff Mangan of The Montana Plan. "Those who have defended our republic understand that elections should be decided by the people — not by corporate money, dark-money networks, or artificial entities with the power to drown out ordinary voters. VAV-Montana's endorsement and the launch of Veterans for I-194 reflect our commitment to building a campaign rooted in the voices of real Montanans, especially those who have served to protect the freedoms and values we all share."

"This coalition is about more than an endorsement," Mangan said. "It is about making sure veterans have a meaningful voice in the campaign to pass I-194. Veterans understand service, sacrifice, and commitment to country. They also understand that self-government only works when people believe their voices matter. I-194 is about restoring that principle in Montana elections."

Veterans, service members, military family members, and Montanans who want to join Veterans for I-194 or learn more about The Montana Plan can visit montanaplan.org or contact tei@transparentelection.org.
