Dillon Cubs' State Tournament Run Ends in Heartbreaking 11-10 Loss to Havre

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

The Dillon Cubs saw their State A American Legion Tournament run come to a heartbreaking end Friday afternoon, falling 11-10 to the Havre Northstars A 18U in an elimination game.

Despite outhitting Havre 10-9 and battling back multiple times throughout the contest, the Cubs were unable to hold onto a late lead as Havre scored four runs in the top of the seventh inning to complete the comeback.

Havre jumped out to an early advantage in the opening inning when Connor Essert singled to center field and Kody Standiford ripped a double down the right-field line, each driving in two runs to give the Northstars a quick lead.

The Cubs chipped away before finally pulling even in the bottom of the fourth. Kanin Engelhardt drew a bases-loaded walk, and Sawyer Tackett followed with a sacrifice fly to tie the game.

Dillon grabbed its first lead of the afternoon in the fifth inning when an error allowed the go-ahead run to score, putting the Cubs in front 7-6.

Havre answered immediately in the sixth as Quinn Elliot blasted a game-tying triple. The Cubs responded in the bottom half of the inning, reclaiming the lead after Cooper Clarke lined an RBI single down the left-field line and Ben Peacock drew a bases-loaded walk to make it 9-7.

With their season on the line, the Northstars mounted one final rally in the seventh. Elliot delivered the decisive blow with a three-run triple before Brayden McLain added an RBI walk, giving Havre an 11-9 advantage.

Dillon mounted one last comeback attempt in the bottom of the seventh, scoring once, but the rally came up just short as Havre escaped with the 11-10 victory.

Teegan Solomon earned the win for Havre, allowing one unearned run on one hit over the final 1⅓ innings while striking out two. Kanin Engelhardt was charged with the loss in relief. Parker Mills started for the Cubs, allowing six runs—five earned—over 4⅓ innings while striking out three.

The Cubs finished with 10 hits, led by Sawyer Tackett, who went a perfect 3-for-4 at the plate with two RBIs and three stolen bases. Andrew Bartlome also drove in two runs, while Trenton Moreni and Parker Mills each collected multiple hits. Dillon was aggressive on the bases all afternoon, stealing six bases.

Quinn Elliot powered the Havre offense, finishing 3-for-4 with five RBIs, including the game-changing triple in the seventh inning. Maddox Keller added two hits, while the Northstars showed patience at the plate by drawing nine walks.

The loss ends the Dillon Cubs' run at the State A Tournament after an impressive season that saw them battle their way into the state field and compete until the final out. Although their championship hopes came to an end, the Cubs demonstrated resilience throughout the tournament, nearly completing another comeback before falling by a single run in one of the tournament's most exciting elimination games.

DNRC Announces Temporary Access Restrictions

Beginning Aug. 3 through Aug. 7, 2026, construction crews contracted by the Montana Department of Natural Resources and Conservation (DNRC) will conduct important bridge installation and maintenance work on East Fork Blacktail Road in the Blacktail Wildlife Management Area (WMA). Motorized vehicle access will be restricted when construction is taking place.

The 2025 Legislature provided key funding to replace one of two bridges that provide safe public access to thousands of acres in the Blacktail WMA and Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest in Beaverhead County. Crews will replace an access bridge on East Fork Blacktail Road, temporarily limiting access to the BLM East Fork Blacktail Campground.

Crews will place signs at key locations to guide visitors and prevent entry into restricted areas during active work.

Visitors can find alternate BLM camping opportunities in southwestern Montana during the temporary road closure by exploring Recreation.gov [recreation.gov].

Dillon Cubs Fall to Glendive, Remain Alive in State A Tournament

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

The Dillon Cubs dropped their first game of the State A American Legion Baseball Tournament on Thursday night, falling 9-2 to the Glendive Blue Devils A. Despite the loss, the Cubs remain alive in the double-elimination tournament and returned to the field Friday at 2:30 p.m. in an elimination game.

Glendive struck first in the top of the second inning when Gradin Sukut doubled to drive in the game's opening run. The Blue Devils extended their lead to 2-0 in the third after Easton Schriver stole home.

The game broke open in the fifth inning as Glendive plated five runs on five hits. Sukut delivered the big blow with a two-run triple, while Chance Cullinan added an RBI double. Two Dillon errors also led to runs during the inning as the Blue Devils built a commanding 7-0 advantage.

The Cubs answered in the bottom of the sixth. Sawyer Tackett launched a solo home run to left field, and Ben Peacock later drew a bases-loaded walk to score Dillon's second run, trimming the deficit to 7-2. Glendive added two more runs late to seal the 9-2 victory.

Quinn Hoffer earned the win for the Blue Devils, allowing seven hits and two runs—one earned—over 6 1/3 innings while striking out nine and walking one.

Trenton Moreni took the loss for Dillon after pitching four innings, giving up two runs—one earned—on three hits while striking out five and issuing five walks.

Moreni and Tackett each collected two hits for the Cubs, with Tackett finishing 2-for-4, driving in one run and providing Dillon's lone extra-base hit with his sixth-inning home run.

Glendive totaled 11 hits in the contest, led by Sukut, who went 3-for-5 with four RBIs. Connor Guldborg and Hoffer also recorded multiple-hit games. The Blue Devils showed patience at the plate, drawing six walks, with Brock McPherson and Isaac Eaton each earning two free passes.

The loss sent Dillon into the elimination bracket, where the Cubs looked to keep their season alive when they took the field again Friday at 2:30 p.m. A win would keep Dillon's championship hopes alive, while a second loss would end its run in the State A Tournament.

Bobcat Lakes Fire East of Wisdom Grows

The Bobcat Lakes Fire has burned an estimated 224 acres approximately 12 miles east of Wisdom, Montana.

The fire is burning in thick timber with heavy dead and downed fuels, according to the Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest Wildland Fire Information Facebook page. Active fire behavior has been reported on the north and northeast sides of the fire, including running, torching and short-range spotting.

Fourteen smokejumpers were inserted into the fire area last evening. Aerial resources, fire engines and incident overhead personnel are also on the scene. Additional resources have been ordered and were expected to arrive Saturday and throughout the coming days.

Fire managers are urging people to stay out of the Pettengill Creek and Lacey Creek trail areas because of safety concerns. Residents and visitors should avoid the affected areas and allow firefighters and emergency equipment to operate without interference.

Sand Creek Fire Grows Southeast of Wisdom

The Sand Creek Fire has grown to an estimated 450 acres as of 5 p.m. Saturday. The fire is located approximately 7.5 miles southeast of Wisdom, Montana.

The fire was first reported at approximately 2:30 p.m. Saturday and was initially estimated at 40 acres, according to the Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest Wildland Fire Information Facebook page.

Fire behavior has included crowning and torching. Crowning occurs when a fire spreads through the tops of trees, while torching refers to individual trees or small groups of trees becoming engulfed in flames.
