2001–02 & 2002–03 Montana Western Women's Basketball Teams

The 2001–02 and 2002–03 Montana Western women's basketball teams put together one of the most successful two-year stretches in program history, combining for an outstanding 62–8 overall record while capturing back-to-back Frontier Conference championships and Frontier Conference Tournament titles.

The 2001–02 Bulldogs finished an impressive 32–4 overall and a perfect 14–0 in conference play. The team put together a remarkable 21-game winning streak from December through March and earned a trip to the NAIA National Tournament, advancing to the Elite Eight. Among the season's memorable victories was a win over NCAA Division I Idaho State in Dillon.

The Bulldogs carried that momentum into 2002–03, finishing 30–4 overall and 12–2 in Frontier Conference play. Montana Western opened the season with 16 consecutive victories and closed the year with another 10-game winning streak. The Bulldogs returned to the NAIA National Tournament, advancing to the Sweet 16, while showcasing a high-powered offense that produced three 100-plus-point games and 11 games with more than 80 points.

teams were filled with outstanding individual talent. Bobbi Suhr Konen earned NAIA All-American and WBCA Coaches All-American honors in both seasons and was named Frontier Conference MVP. Numerous Bulldogs earned All-Conference, Player of the Week, and academic honors, reflecting the teams' success both on the court and in the classroom.

Together, these two teams established a remarkable standard of excellence for Montana Western women's basketball. Their 62 victories, two conference championships, two tournament championships, and back-to-back national tournament runs remain an exceptional chapter in Bulldog Athletics history.

Glen Johnson '78 — Meritorious Service Award

Glen Johnson '78 has been part of the Montana Western and Bulldog Athletics community for more than 50 years, first as a student-athlete and later as a dedicated supporter and volunteer. Johnson played football for Western from 1974–1978 as a nose guard and linebacker and was a member of the 1977 Frontier Conference championship team. Some of his favorite memories include winning the conference championship in 1977, and the friendships he formed with teammates—what he calls the “Bulldog Brotherhood”—that have continued throughout his life.

Johnson's involvement with Montana Western extended well beyond his playing days. As a student, he was active in the M Club, serving as Sergeant at Arms and later president. Over the years, he continued giving his time to Bulldog Athletics through the Old Dogs, Bulldog Club, fundraising efforts, and service on the Athletic Director Selection Committee. He has remained a familiar and loyal member of the Bulldog community, supporting the university and its student-athletes in a variety of ways.

After earning his Bachelor of Science in Secondary Education from Western in 1978, Johnson devoted more than 40 years to education. His career included 15 years as a teacher and coach, 10 years as a principal, and 15 years as a superintendent, including 10 years leading Dillon Schools. He also earned a master's degree in education and a doctorate in education from the University of Montana. One of the early highlights of his career was being graduate assistant under Coach Don Read at the University of Montana. During his years as a coach, he coached several state champion track athletes and won a state title in track and field.

Johnson and his wife, Ann, have been married for 46 years and share a lifelong commitment to education. They have two sons and two granddaughters. From his days on the football field to decades of service to education and continued support of Montana Western Athletics, Johnson's connection to the Bulldogs has remained a meaningful part of his life.

Veteran's Corner Update #578

By Mike Lawson

Veteran News Updates:

• This Iran conflict is not easy on the parents and loved ones of our military personal that are in harms way. We had some who have been killed and a number who have been wounded by drones and missiles that the Iranian military have shot at our military bases in the area. The latest news is Iran offering a bounty of $30,000 to kill US Soldiers and offering a woman double that amount, if she can kill or capture a US Soldier. It's a real deal over there and hopefully will get resolved before many more American lives are taken or harmed. We need to ask our elected officials to be responsible and keep their constituents informed on a weekly basis, as to the situation there.

• It's been a devastation for the country of Colombia after experiencing a deadly earthquake, recently. Our military is stepping up and delivering resources into the country. The US Southern Command and the State Department are in charge of these operations. Basic aid, being sent, are necessities like water and shelter supplies. Efforts to restore internet access in these affected areas, is being made also. These military personal are doing a great thing and need to be applauded.

• Alcohol addictions have a serious impact on the health of the addicted and many times leads to an early death. The Department of Veterans Affairs is studying the use of GLP-1 semaglutide medications to combat these addictions. It was originally used to treat diabetes and even used for weight loss. The VA researchers are in the process of gathering definitive evidence to see the potential for it to be used to treat alcohol addiction. These studies may lead to increased availability for all Americans who struggle with this addiction.

• Here is another example of military personal helping in an emergency situation outside the realm of normal military duties. About 250 soldiers from a local base in Washington are helping fight a big fire in that state. This is dangerous work and I salute them for doing it.

• The ID Card for veterans enrolled in VA healthcare is the Veteran Health Identification Card (VHIC). If you don't have one you can call 1-877-222-VETS(8387) or va.gov/get-id-card.

It's time to bring this to a close. Watch out for the kids when you're driving. Until next time, take care.

UMW Football Chosen Third in 2026 Frontier Conference West Division Football Coaches Poll

The Montana Western football team was picked to finish third in the 2026 Frontier Conference West Division Football Coaches' Preseason Poll, the league office announced.

Defending West Division Champ College of Idaho was elected to repeat with 36 points in the poll (six first place votes). Carroll narrowly edged UMW in the second spot with 30 points while Western picked up 27 (one first place vote).

Southern Oregon (20), Eastern Oregon (17), Arizona Christian (11), and Simpson (6), round out spots four-through-seven in the poll.

Coaches were not allowed to vote for their own teams.

The East and West Division winners will both earn an automatic bid to the 2026 NAIA Football Championship Series. 13 automatic bid and seven at-large bids will make up the 20-team field.

Gallery of Hope Fundraiser

The Women's Resource Center will host the Gallery of Hope fundraiser on Saturday, August 22, from 4-8 p.m. at El Western Cabins & Lodges, 4787 US-287 in Ennis. This year's theme, "Inspiring Healing," celebrates the courage and resilience of survivors while raising essential funds for the WRC's services throughout Madison and Beaverhead Counties. The evening will feature a silent art auction showcasing work by Montana artists, along with "Quick Finish," a live clay demonstration by Montana sculptor and artist Mary Michael. Guests can enjoy food from Fully Loaded Tacos and Campfire Pizza food trucks, champagne and beverages from Longbranch Saloon, and live patio music by Jesse Taylor.

The event is free and open to the public and is co-sponsored by Resolute Roots Realty and Vessey Properties - eXp Realty. For more information, contact the WRC at (406) 683-6106 or visit www.wrcmt.org.
