Louis (Louie) Ochoa III

Louis (Louie) Ochoa III went to be with his Lord on Tuesday, August 18, 2026. Louie was born on March 3, 1970, in Othello, WA to his father, Louis Ochoa Jr. and his mother, Lorraine Ochoa. He was also welcomed by his loving and excited big sister Renee, and his parents would later give birth to Louie's younger brother with whom he was also very close, Larry. Named after his father, Louie Ochoa III was affectionately called "Son" by his family.

Louie grew up in Othello, Washington on a farm with his parents and siblings. As a kid, he loved to hunt, fish, and hunt some more. He graduated from Othello

High School in June 1988, and quickly went on to pursue a career in law enforcement. He took classes in criminal justice at Columbia Basin College, and eventually went to police academy in Washington before graduating and beginning work. Later, Louie worked in law enforcement in Northern Idaho, which also gave him the opportunity to live closer to his beloved brother, Larry, and his family. Louie loved being in the quiet mountains of Idaho where he could hike and hunt most of the year.

In 2015, Louie met Jaime (his future wife) through a mutual friend, and they immediately hit it off. He would drive in the middle of the night just to see her, and he spent time with her and her daughters, Annika and Kyann, whom he often said he loved as his own. Eventually, Jaime, Annika, and Kyann moved to Spokane with Louie and lived on a farm with cows, pigs, goats, sheep, cats, and Louie's beloved pitbull-shar pei mix, Mae. In Spokane, Jaime and Louie gave birth to Louie's first and only child, daughter Hunter Rochelle Ochoa, who was the great light of his life and who he affectionately referred to as "Princess". Louie taught Annika how to hunt, taught Kyann how to weld, and taught Hunter how to blow a duck call, among many other things. Louie and Jaime later pursued their dream of moving to the beautiful big sky of Dillon, Montana, where Louie could do all of the hunting that he could ever dream of in his free time. He was a lifelong hunter of elk, bear, deer, antelope, pheasants, duck, geese, and just about anything he could get a tag for, even boar! He was also a great cook, and he made the juiciest elk burgers and most delicious salsas. He loved old school hip hop and often carried NWA and Snoop Dogg CD's in his vehicle (he also always said "vehicle", and would always correct people if they called it a "car" or a "truck"). He loved making people laugh, and would do just about any silly dance move that Kyann and Annika asked him to when they were teenagers. He found peace in spending time with family, spending time outdoors, and working in the shop.

Louie believed in the Lord Jesus Christ. He is survived by Jaime Ochoa, his daughter Hunter Rochelle Ochoa, Annika and Kyann Zeigler, brother, Larry (Amber and Ashley), sister, Renee (Andrew, Michael and Rochelle), father, Louis Ochoa II, and an extended family of nieces, nephews, cousins, aunts, uncles, and friends.

A service to remember his life will be held on Saturday, August 29th at 10:00 am at First Presbyterian Church of Dillon. Arrangements are being provided by K&L Mortuaries.

Madison Buffalo Jump State Park to host annual Kite Festival

Madison Buffalo Jump State Park will host its annual Kite Festival on Saturday, Sept. 5.

This event brings together activities, vendors, music and educational programs that celebrate the jump as a significant cultural site and a scenic, local destination for families and recreationists.

This year's kite festival will include Native American art vendors, flint knapping demonstrations, a food truck by Vintage Nana's Indian Tacos, a drum circle by Many Hands Light Work, and a presentation on bison by Billy Maxwell.

In addition, the park will have kite kits for sale for visitors who would like to build their own kite and fly it on site, but visitors are also welcome to bring a kite from home. Visitors can also learn how to play traditional Native American games during the festival.

The festival will be from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Sept. 5. For more information about the festival, call 406-285-3610.

Madison Buffalo Jump State Park overlooks the valley surrounding the lower Madison River, about 13 miles southeast of Three Forks along Buffalo Jump Road. It includes a high limestone cliff used by Native Americans to stampede large herds of bison for gathering food, clothing, shelter and provisions. The park is open all year during daylight hours.

Bozeman Symphony Welcomes Six New Musicians for the 2026-27 Season

The Bozeman Symphony and Music Director Norman Huynh are pleased to welcome six outstanding musicians to the orchestra for its 2026-27 season, Music that Moves Us . . . Near and Far.

Following a national audition process, Elizabeth Overweg has been appointed Associate Concertmaster. Also selected from the national audition process are violinists Sarah Francis, Beckett Koch, and Edith Samuelsson; violist Nicole Smith; and cellist Sam Spottiswoode.

"We are delighted to welcome these exceptional musicians to the Bozeman Symphony," said Music Director Norman Huynh.

Overweg, of Bozeman, performs with the Louisiana Philharmonic Orchestra and has appeared with orchestras across the country. An accomplished soloist, educator, and award-winning violinist, she earned a Master of Music in Performance from the University of Nevada, Reno.

Francis, of Ogden, Utah, previously performed as a substitute violinist with the Bozeman Symphony and has also appeared with the University of Utah Philharmonic Orchestra and the Salt Lake Choral Artists.

Koch, of Billings, has been a tenured violinist with the Billings Symphony Orchestra since 2015. His career also includes teaching violin in Connecticut and Maine and performing as a section violinist with orchestras in Connecticut and Michigan. He earned a bachelor's degree in Violin Performance.

Samuelsson, of Chicago, serves as ensembles assistant at DePaul University and as an account manager and instrument technician for StringWorks. She performed with the DePaul University Symphony Orchestra, DePaul Concert Orchestra, and the Wheaton College Symphony Orchestra. Samuelsson earned a Master of Music degree in Violin Performance from DePaul University.

Smith, of Ogden, Utah, previously performed as a substitute violist with the Bozeman Symphony and served as a section violist with the Helena Symphony. She earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Music Education from the College of Idaho.

Spottiswoode, of Bozeman, serves as assistant principal cello of the Montana State University Symphony Orchestra and has performed with the Bozeman Symphony, Opera Montana, and the MSU String Quartet. He is pursuing a Bachelor of Arts in Music at Montana State University and expects to graduate in 2027.

The Bozeman Symphony opens its 2026-27 season on September 12 and 13 with Revolution & Revelry: Shostakovich 5. Tickets are available at bozemansymphony.org or by calling 406-585-9774. Adult tickets start at $30, with discounted pricing available for students. Tickets purchased at the door are subject to availability.

Montana Western to Host 2026 Joint Planning Conference of the American Planning Association

The University of Montana Western will welcome planning professionals, community leaders, elected officials, and other professionals from across the region when it hosts the 2026 Joint Montana & Idaho Chapter Conference of the Montana Chapter of the American Planning Association, also known as Montana Association of Planners (MAP), and the Idaho Chapter of the American Planning Association (APA Idaho) Sept. 9-11 in Dillon, Montana.

Montana Western's campus will serve as the central meeting point for the conference, providing a setting for planners and community leaders from throughout Montana and Idaho to exchange ideas and explore approaches to community development and land-use planning.

The conference theme, "Across the Divide: Planning for a Shared Future," highlights the shared planning challenges facing communities across state lines and the intermountain west.

The conference will feature two keynote speakers: Ben Hitchings, FAICP, CZO, principal of Green Heron Planning LLC and an APA Region II Board Director, and Kelly Pohl, associate director of Headwaters Economics.

Hitchings brings more than 30 years of experience working on planning issues and has developed award-winning community plans and professional publications. He previously served as planning director for the towns of Chapel Hill and Morrisville, North Carolina, and is a member of the American Planning Association's Board of Directors.

Pohl is associate director of Headwaters Economics, a Montana-based independent nonprofit research organization focused on improving community development and land management decisions. Her work examines how communities use and manage land amid changing economies and risks, including wildfire, recreation, conservation, and development.

The joint conference will take place Sept. 9-11. Registration, conference schedules, session information, lodging and additional details are available through the conference webpage: <https://mtplanners.org/conference/montana-association-of-planners-2026-annual-conference/>.
