Kathryne Martha Layne

February 19, 1929 — August 12, 2026

Kathryne, a cherished soul who graced this world with her vibrant spirit on February 19, 1929, in the serene town of Missoula, Montana, passed away peacefully in her sleep on August 12, 2026, following a short illness. Born to Charles M. McCauley (son of Major Michael M. McCauley for whom McCauley Butte is named) and Emma Elizabeth Burks, Kathryne's life was a testament to love, resilience, and dedication. She grew up at the foot of her family's homestead, McCauley Ranch and McCauley Butte by Target Range, the Bitterroot River and Fort Missoula. She grew up a country girl during the Depression and on the Dairy Ranch and boy did she love growing gardens that produced plenty of vegetables.

In 1945, Kathryne embarked on the journey of marriage with Almer Lee Layne, Sr., in Missoula, a union that would set the foundation for a large, loving family. Together, they welcomed eight children: Charles M., Almer Lee (Jeanette), Jr., Richard Gene (Carleen), Constance May, Gregory Wayne, Thomas Elliot, Christine Rose, and Robin Kevin (Isabel). Her family became the cornerstone of her life, and she cherished her role as a devoted mother and grandmother to her thirteen grandchildren and sixteen great-grandchildren, including Teresa, Melanie, Jennifer, Linda, Ladan, Kathleen, Christian, Denef, Marta, Kimberly, Amarilis, Alexander, and Madison.

Kathryne's life was enriched by her education and career pursuits. Although she left Missoula County High School early to marry, she never abandoned her thirst for knowledge, eventually earning a Bachelor of Science in Business Education in 1982.

She lived at times in her life in Arkansas, Idaho, California, and South Dakota, but she returned to her beloved home state and city for good in 1989 where she lived the rest of her life.

Her membership, including her time with the Eagles Lodge, reflected her love for community and connection. Kathryne was known for her culinary skills, her insatiable love for reading, and her joy in sharing stories and laughter with friends.

Kathryne was blessed with love more than once, marrying William F. Opat in 1968 and later, Jim Walter in 1982. Each chapter of her life was marked by growth, love, and new beginnings.

She was predeceased by all eight of her siblings (Jamec., Anna Elizabeth, Joseph 'Joe' M., Virginia M., Marian M., Helen E., Richard M., Lucy M., Charlotte P., Jessie J., Freda L., her parents, and her beloved daughter, Christine Rose Layne, who passed away in March 2026. Despite these profound losses, Kathryne's spirit remained unbroken, carried forward by the love and support of her surviving family.

The family has expressed a preference for donations to be made to a charity of the donor's choice.

Kathryne lived a life filled with meaningful experiences, deep love, and lasting connections.

FIRE UPDATES

Bobcat Lakes 10,030 40% 13 miles SW of Wise River,
12 miles E of Wisdom
Sand Creek 33,088 14% 7.5 miles SE of Wisdom

Sand Creek Fire – Fire behavior increased yesterday on the west perimeter, driven by strong winds and drying fuels, mostly pushing back uphill into the black. Firefighters are holding the line and are prepared to conduct firing operations from the indirect line where and when necessary. The fire was also active in the Jackson Creek area where crews remain ready to hold the indirect line on the southwest corner. Two hotshot crews finished the handline above Dingley Creek and reached treeline at the top of the ridge yesterday evening. When mop-up is complete, this line will keep the fire from progressing southward into Grasshopper Valley. Mop-up is continuing in the Wellman and Price Creek areas, as is improvement of the line along Old Tim Creek. The Scenic Byway north of the fire is being prepared to serve as indirect line should fire activity near Seymour Mountain increase.

Bobcat Lakes Fire – Firefighters are in place at Jerked Prairie and will leave water handling equipment in place until structures are no longer at risk. Crews are prepared for firing operations in Lacy Creek if needed. Crews continue to cool the fire's edge and patrol the north, east and south perimeters.

The Montana Western football team was selected 18th in the preseason edition of the 2026 STADIONIC-NAIA Coaches' Top 25 Poll, the national office announced Monday.

The Bulldogs begin where they finished in the final poll of 2025, while five other Frontier Conference schools are also ranked or receiving votes.

College of Idaho (four) is the highest ranked FC program, followed by Montana Tech (five), Carroll (11), Western (18), Dakota State (25) and Dickinson State (RV).

The preseason poll is the first of seven coaches' polls in 2026, followed by three national selection committee polls, a final ARC rating Nov. 15, and a postseason poll Jan. 4.

UP NEXT: The Bulldogs kick off the 2026 slate Sept. 5 at MSU-Northern. First kick is set for 1 p.m. MT.
