William Paul "Blue" Armstrong

William Paul "Blue" Armstrong left this world on August 21, 2026, at home and cared for by family. He was born on the 4th of July, 1954 in Indianapolis, IN to William Paul Armstrong Sr. and Sandra Kantner Armstrong. Blue spent his first fourteen years on the family farm on Pipe Creek outside of Alexandria, IN. It was along Pipe Creek that his lifelong connection with nature was formed.

Blue attended four different high schools in four years. After graduation in 1972, he moved to Hillsdale, MI, and in 1973 met Betsy Hook, his partner for the rest of his life. They moved to Ann Arbor, MI in 1975 and married there in 1979. In 1981 they moved to Dillon, MT after Blue read an article in Fly Fisherman magazine about the mighty Beaverhead River. Here Blue found his paradise.

Blue worked various jobs in Dillon including farming with Jim Blake and working at Dick Sharon's fly shop. He worked maintenance and security for several years at Western Montana College. He volunteered at Bike Walk Southwest Montana, aka The Bike Park on Overland Road, where he loved meeting bicyclists from across the country and many from all over the world.

In 1993 he started his own pow-wow drum, Calling Mountain, and remained on the pow-wow trail for 19 years. He also played double bass in several improvised music collectives. He was a Leo Records, (London, Eng.) recording artist. These activities coincided with his lifelong environmental activism.

He was preceded in death by his parents, his brothers-in-law Steve Hook and Brooks Kindel, and his close made brother Rob Wiggins. He is survived by his wife Betsy, his brothers John, Scott and Richard Armstrong, as well as his sister-in-law Margie Kindel, and brother-in-law Jim (Cappy) Hook, and numerous nieces and nephews. He is also survived by his traditionally made relatives The Whiteman family of Lame Deer, MT and Dan Brunkhorst of Lewistown, MT.

He deeply loved his time in Montana and had a special affinity for Beaverhead County. Horse Prairie, Medicine Lodge and the southern part of the county were especially treasured. His dying wish was for the continued protection of these jewels of the Northern Rockies.

The family wants to thank Dr. McIntyre, Dr. Heuer, Sarah and Jamie at Honeybee Hospice, and Bryan Coble at Affordable Funeral and Cremation Services who made a "green" burial possible at Mountain View Cemetery. A special thanks to Dan Brunkhorst for seeing Blue out in a manner for which Blue would have been very grateful.

Passing Hailstorm Sends Multiple Vehicles
Off I-15 Near DillonJeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News*

A passing hailstorm created hazardous driving conditions on Interstate 15 Saturday afternoon, sending multiple vehicles off the roadway near mile marker 81.

First responders were initially called to the area after reports that several vehicles had slid off the interstate due to hail covering the roadway.

A Beaverhead County Sheriff's deputy arrived on scene and found multiple vehicles involved. One passenger vehicle was reportedly able to get back onto the roadway, while a truck pulling a trailer sustained some damage after leaving the interstate.

While the deputy was still on scene, a motorcycle also went off the roadway due to the hail, prompting an additional response from the fire department and ambulance.

According to scanner traffic, the motorcyclist was up and walking following the incident. The extent of any injuries was not immediately known.

Drivers traveling through Southwest Montana should use caution when thunderstorms move through the area. Hail can quickly accumulate on highways and create slick conditions with little warning.

More information will be provided if it becomes available.

Roe 2 Fire Reaches 60% Containment in Beaverhead County

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

Updated August 31, 2026, at 9:10 a.m.

The Roe 2 Fire burning east of Clark Canyon Reservoir in Beaverhead County has reached 60% containment, according to the latest fire update.

The lightning-caused wildfire began at approximately 5 p.m. on Thursday, August 27. The fire has burned an estimated 983 acres.

Montana Department of Natural Resources and Conservation crews remained on scene throughout the weekend. Firefighters checked the area for remaining hot spots and worked to rehabilitate the dozer line constructed during containment efforts.

DNRC resources will continue monitoring and working on the Roe 2 Fire until it reaches 100% containment.

Wildfire conditions and containment figures can change. Residents should follow official Beaverhead County and Montana DNRC information sources for the latest updates.

Daily fishing restrictions lifted for several southwestern Montana rivers

Restrictions remain in effect for portions of Madison, Beaverhead and Big Hole rivers

Daily fishing restrictions, commonly known as hoot-owl restrictions, have been lifted for several rivers in southwestern Montana with cooling water temperatures.

Restrictions have been removed for the Gallatin, Jefferson, Ruby and Shields rivers. The following updates have been made for the Madison River:

The restriction immediately upstream of Ennis Reservoir and the closure downstream of the reservoir have been removed.

A hoot-owl restriction remains in effect upstream of Hebgen Reservoir to the boundary of Yellowstone National Park.

A hoot-owl restriction remains in effect from the Bureau of Land Management's Warm Springs boat launch to the confluence with the Jefferson River.

Drought-related fishing closures and restrictions also remain in effect for the Beaverhead and Big Hole rivers.

UMW Volleyball Falls to Ranked Opponents on Day One of I-84 Classic

The Montana Western volleyball team (1-5) fell to #2 Eastern Oregon (11-0) 3-0 and #18 College of Idaho (6-0) 3-2 on the opening day of the I-84 Classic.

UMW vs EOU

Kennedy Lingenfelter posted a team-best five kills.
 Savana Warburton hit a team-high .250 clip.
 Sophie Worden & Maggie Schneider each tallied eight assists.
 Lingenfelter, Schneider, and Worden landed one ace apiece.
 Madisyn Frazier registered a game-high 13 digs.
 Lingenfelter and Dani Brown recorded three blocks.

UMW vs CI

Antonia Duncan led the Bulldogs with 11 kills.
 Kennedy Lingenfelter hit a game-best .529.
 Jayda Ward racked up a team-high 23 assists.
 Sophie Worden registered two service aces.
 Madisyn Frazier recorded a team-best 16 digs.
 Jaiden Perez earned a game-high 7.0 blocks.

UMW vs EOU

The two-ranked Mountaineers got off to a strong start in set one, building a nine-point lead early in the match. The Bulldogs found their footing but couldn't quite close the gap and EOU went up 1-0 with a 25-14 set score. The Mountaineers doubled their lead with a 25-8 set two victory. UMW came alive in set three, scoring the first four points and maintaining its lead through most of the final frame. EOU managed to even things up at 21 points and went on to win the match in extra points, 26-24.

UMW vs CI

The tournament hosts jumped out to an early lead in the first and went up 1-0 after a 25-15 set victory. The Yotes doubled their lead after a tightly contested 25-23 win in set two. The Bulldogs showed moxie, however, and snagged the third frame 25-23. The momentum was on their side in the fourth and they evened the score at two sets apiece with a 25-22 victory. College of Idaho managed to steal the 3-2 win with a 15-10 score in the final set.

Bulldog Volleyball Falls to #15 The Master's 3-0 Saturday

The Montana Western volleyball team (1-6) fell 3-0 in a hard-fought contest against #15 The Master's (4-4) Saturday afternoon.

NOTABLES: Antonia Duncan hit a career-best .421 and matched her career-best with nine kills.

Dani Brown's .600 clip was also a career-high.

Four Bulldogs recorded at lead seven kills in the match.

Antonia Duncan, Averi Look, and Savana Warburton shared the team-lead in kills with nine apiece.

Dani Brown hit a game-best .600.

Jayda Ward led the team with 19 assists, followed by Worden with 16.

Warburton landed the lone ace of the match for UMW.

Madisyn Frazier tied for the game-high in digs with 13.

Kennedy Lingenfelter led the game with 4.0 blocks.

MATCH SUMMARY

This was the Bulldogs most tightly-contested match of the season, with all three sets decided by just two points (23-25, 25-27, 23-25). In the opening frame, TMU jumped out to an early lead, but UMW went on a 9-2 run to pull themselves back into the set. The Master's snagged the set to go up 1-0. In the second, the two sides traded the lead four times and were tied nine times before the Mustangs went up 2-0 with the extra-points set win. The third set continued in the same manner before the Bulldogs built up a five-point lead late in the match. TMU battled back, however, to seal the final set win.
